COURSE PROJECT: An Introduction to Photography

This course helps you to make the most of your camera, moving beyond its auto settings and exploring new creative possibilities. We look at key principles of photography, including composition, camera lenses, landscape photography and portraiture, as well as getting to grips with essential manual controls and settings on your camera.

An introduction to photography suitable for both beginners and for photographers who are looking for a comprehensive refresher course.

CORE SKILLS:

- Taking control of your camera
- Exposure and the relationship between aperture, shutter speed and ISO
- Guidelines in composition
- Camera lenses and perspective
- First principles in portrait photography
- Camera mechanics and functions
- Landscape photography

MATERIALS LIST:

SLR camera / compact camera with manual features. Digital and Film cameras welcome.

TUTOR

Jackie Rado is a freelance photographer specialising in portrait and travel photography. She works on commission and assignment and her work has been featured in Marie Claire, Travel + Leisure, Traversing the Orient, and The Bangkok Post Magazine.
