The ancient art of paper cutting has been brought bang up to date on this one day workshop. You'll be inspired by looking at a wide range of cut out artefacts including Polish paper cuts, Haitian metal work and wooden fret work as well as numerous art works, photos and resource sheets. You'll master cutting safely using a scalpel and get to grips with creative freehand lettering to design your own unique paper cut. Highly rewarding and great fun, you will never need to buy a greetings card again!

Materials List:

All materials will be provided.

Tutor:

Christine is an inspiring tutor with a wealth of teaching and design experience and a holistic approach to creativity. Her unique creative profile includes 12 years as a graphic designer at the BBC and being Head of Film and Animation at Kingston University, author of 'Contemporary Needlepoint' and Kodak's Young Photographer of the year (some time ago!). She has also won a clutch of international awards and been nominated for a BAFTA. Her textiles have been shown at the Contemporary Textiles Gallery in London and her graphic work has been published in various journals and books. As a freelancer, she has made 80 velvet scarves for 'Mary Poppins' on Broadway NY and even filmed a funeral for the Queen. She is passionate about lettering and paper cutting and enjoys sharing her enthusiasm with her students.

Refreshments:

Tea and coffee are provided during the day. The workshop will allow for a one hour break at lunch time to be spent at your leisure. There is a seated area in the building where you can sit to eat lunch if you bring lunch with you, otherwise there are lots of cafes on the High Street nearby.
