The Landmark Summer Art School offers you the opportunity to discover your creative potential. Enjoy a moment of uninterrupted time to develop your art skills with individual tuition and guidance.

Our summer short courses are designed for small groups of adults beginners and returners who will benefit from furthering their own art projects.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Tutored by Marcia Hughes, a renowned local artist and an experienced teacher, the course teaches techniques in watercolour painting and drawing Botanical Art and Illustration. Flowers, foliage and plants are observed and step-by-step demonstrations are included with an emphasis on accurate and realistic depiction. The workshop is designed for beginners and intermediate participants. A varied selection of fresh and dried plant material will be available on the day.

Be inspired by Marcia's website on: www.marciahughesart.co.uk.

CORE SKILLS:

- Developing the skill of drawing accurately for Botanical painting
- Developing observational skills with an aim to render a realistic depiction
- Developing watercolour painting skills for Botanical Art
- Tonal contrasts and textures to create a 3D effect
- Composition and design to achieve a well balanced result
