

Performing Arts

Drama For Adults

8 weeks from 17th January 2018

Wednesday: 8.00pm – 9.30pm

Cost: £80

Tutor: Caroline Dooley

Dates: 17, 24, 31 January; 7, 21, 28 February;
7, 14 March (no class 14 February)

COURSE SUMMARY:

Workshop style sessions that offer a fun and supportive environment in which students can learn new acting and performance skills, or build on those they already have, without the pressure of being in a production. Release your imagination and creativity through drama games, improvisation, text and devised work as you immerse yourself in the enjoyable world of 'make-believe'.

CORE SKILLS:

- Drama games
- Basic stagecraft
- Creating characters/stories

MATERIALS LISTS:

No materials required, just bring yourself. It is recommended you wear comfortable clothing that you can move around in.

TUTOR:

Caroline has been involved in many aspects of the performing world as an actor, writer, arts administrator and drama teacher. By using interesting ways to introduce basic acting techniques students are guided through exercises to experience and understand them. She encourages students to release their creativity and self-expression and aims to make every session enjoyable and challenging so that everyone leaves with an increased sense of well-being and achievement.

THE SMALL PRINT:
