Portrait Drawing Course

A course which focuses on drawing the head – developing a greater understanding of proportions and capturing character. You will learn about the architecture of the head, neck and facial features and how the underlying structure influences the surface form. By the end of the course you should be able to depict the head from different viewpoints using a selection of different materials and approaches. We will be drawing from a clothed life model and the work of other artists will be used as inspiration. We will also study how composition can express a mood and reveal character. Suitable for all level.

CORE SKILLS:

- Proportions of head and facial features
- Understanding the anatomy of the head and neck
- Observing and drawing tilts and angles of the head
- Using shadow shapes to depict form
- Using linear and tonal methods
- Capturing character and individual likeness

MATERIALS LIST:

Pencils H, HB, 2B, 4B, willow charcoal (box of mixed size or medium thickness). A3 or A2 (preferably) cartridge paper, eraser, 2 coloured pencils, 2 bulldog clips, masking tape, 2 sheets of tracing paper, pencil sharpener or scalpel. Any other personally preferred materials.
